Membership entitles you, on successful completion of an Induction Course, to access the Green Door Printmaking Studio and Dark Room facilities on an hourly sessional basis bookable in advance. The session fees cover the cost of consumable materials such as most printmaking inks, rags and newsprint, whilst a variety of papers and other materials can be purchased from the Studio. Membership requires that you accept and abide by the rules and regulations that cover work in the Studio (available for review upon request).
